

MAP Office Manager Departs,
New Operations Assistant Takes Over
August 13, 2003

With profound regret, Media Access Project bids adieu to its current Office Manager, Ms. Paula Galloway. Ms. Galloway has served as Operations Assistant and Office Manager of Media Access Project since February 2002. “Ms. Galloway has been an integral part of this team since the day she walked in the door,” said MAP President and CEO Andrew Jay Schwartzman, “we will miss her, but we wish her luck on her new endeavor.” “Ms. Galloway brought such professionalism and expertise to this office, all of MAP’s work was better because of her participation.”

Ms. Galloway will be starting as a Legal Secretary with the Center for Constitutional Litigation.

Taking on the role of Operations Assistant is Ms. Amy Zalud. Ms. Zalud has been with MAP as its Law Clerk since September 2002. Ms. Zalud brings a thorough knowledge of MAP’s operations and an expanding knowledge of legal matters to her new position. “We are delighted that Ms. Zalud is able to take on an expanded role here at Media Access Project,” said Cheryl A. Leanza, MAP’s Deputy Director. Ms. Zalud is currently completing her final semester at George Washington University. Ms. Zalud will be in MAP’s offices on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. MAP will be hiring additional part-time staff to aid Ms. Zalud. Ms. Zalud can be reached at 202-454-5685 or at azalud@mediaaccess.org.
